The Privateering Question—Mr. Marcy's Proposal withdrawn by the Buchanan Administration.

The telegraphic report of the foreign news of last week made some reference to a call in Parliament for a copy of Mr Marcy's letter to the French Government on the subject of privateering The matter was not fully understood at the time It seems however, that certain resolutions were agreed to at the recent Conferences of the European powers at Paris involving among other things the relinquishment of the barbarous practice of privateering, as a feature of naval warfare These resolutions were communicated to our government, under Mr Pierce's administration, while Mr Marcy had the management of our foreign relations Mr Marcy sent a letter to the French Government in reply, suggesting that to relinquish the right of privateering would be to yield a strong arm of defence and aggression on our part—but that nevertheless, if the other naval powers would agree to respect private property altogether—on the ocean as on the land—if they would agree that the non combatant class of belligerents should not capture private property—then the United States would consent to forego their great advantages for privateering, and to all the system were abolished by general consent

This was a just and noble concession to the rights of the people of different nations, as people It was yielding an efficient mode of war are for the sake of justice and humanity, —but demanding (and rightfully demanding) at the same time that Great Britain and France should also forego their great advantage of using their superior national navy in the capture of private property This condition rendered somewhat of an equal thing between the great naval powers and it would moreover have been in all probability conceded to

The next thing we learn however, (from Lord Palmerston's reply in Parliament) is that when Buchanan's administration came into power Mr Marcy's liberal, noble and safe proposition had been withdrawn Her Majesty's government was notified that "the United States government would not expect an answer to Mr Marcy's proposition and that in point of fact they considered the matter to be considered as suspended

To show how his proposed policy was viewed in England as to its effects, we copy an extract from Lord John Russell's speech on the occasion above referred to speaking of the agreement at Paris which declared that "free ships protect free goods" and to which the United States had given assent as above stated the night Mr Marcy, her Secretary of State Lord John says

The way in which we have been able to furnish arms to the three Powers, especially France, has been by destroying the enemy's trade We have brought the Powers with whom we have been at war to such a state that their finances have become disordered—they have been ready to listen to terms of peace and thereby the wars have been terminated But now if we were at war with America or France they could maintain their trade in just the same manner because manufactured produce throughout the world could be sent in neutral vessels in perfect safety They would have no reason for many years of peace They would not be distressed—We might gain naval victories, but our successes would not produce peace We might drive all their vessels of war from the seas but we should not thereby gain the end of all war which is an honorable peace The state of the question is to me very alarming

Thus it appears that the proposition which Mr Marcy deemed a fit and honorable one for the United States to make or to accede to, upon this great question, and the policy which Lord John Russell expressly declares would be best for the benefit of this country in case of war with England has been repudiated or withdrawn by the Buchanan administration For what purpose is not yet disclosed—but it puts our government in the awkward position of having once offered to abandon the plundering and thieving system of naval warfare which has disgraced the world heretofore, and then when the other naval powers were about to agree to it regretting our offered honesty and justice—and reconsidering the whole matter, to see if we could not make more by continuing the old game of thieving We say this is the appearance of the thing, but it is only fair to state, that although no authoritative explanations are given, the political friends of the administration explain it on the ground that there is probably an intention of extending the principle so as to settle the question of blockades If so, the proposition may be renewed, although the opportunity for its success has perhaps been lost.

The "Union" is endeavoring to make people believe, that because there is some friction in Massachusetts among the elements opposed to democracy, therefore the Republican party is about to expire We have no doubt the editor of the Union would be glad to believe it himself—but it will be some time before he does believe it He will have ample occasion yet to realize the vitality of the Republican party The condition of parties just now in Massachusetts is one of transition They are crystalizing into modern sham democracy and genuine republicanism The difficulty there is with the former "American" party its leaders, although they agreed to go for Fremont last year, and aided in rolling up his almost unanimous vote in Massachusetts, are still unwilling to yield the identity of the party and to fuse with the Republicans—because in so doing they must lessen their own importance and their own individual chances of political preferment This difficulty may cause an apparent loss of votes this fall, but we think cannot prevent Mr Banks's election by the people But things must soon settle down politically upon a more permanent basis There must be an opposition to the sham democracy nobody doubts that There can be but one living active party of opposition That party cannot be the Whig party, for it is dead and its organization thrown up, and there are no distinctive principles upon which it can possibly be revived The "American" party cannot unite the opposition—for that party is also dead in most of the Northern States, and it has no enduring basis of principle upon which the people will ever rally The Republican party, then, must and will be the great (in the northern States) successful opponent of the sham democracy It will within a few years become a power able to cope with pro-slavery even in the northern tier of slave States themselves—wielding its force in favor of a system of gradual emancipation, and at no distant day triumphing in Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland and Delaware—With this party the freedom loving people of the North must inevitably sympathize and act It cannot be otherwise There is to be no other party except the sham democracy—and that will continue wedded to the interests of slavery so long as slavery wields the power and the rich patronage of the General Government The idea that the Republican party will give way in the North to such a party as this sham democracy is preposterous It is based upon the supposition that the northern people will deliberately yield their attachment to freedom and upon the equally absurd idea that the politics of this country can be carried on with but one great party in action

As to the remarks made by the Boston Journal, and the independent positions now taken by that paper, the New York Herald and the Times—it is sufficient to say that they have not been party papers heretofore, in the strict sense of that term They last year favored the election of Col Fremont, but did not then claim to belong to the Republican party So there is no "desertion" in the case at all They have always declared themselves independent of party relations

A REMARKABLE ADMISSION—The Boston correspondent of the Bangor Union (who is no[illegible] other than Mr Daniel Sanborn recently and formerly editor in chief of the Bangor Journal) speaks very approvingly of the fusion of the Democrat and Journal,—considers it as an union most fit to be made—and says—

"It is a result long expected and long since foreshadowed in the columns of the Journal

And yet this same Daniel Sanborn blackguarded us like a pickpocket a year or two ago for [illegible] this same thing expected result

Mr Sanborn now says

"For years, the doctrines of the Democratic and Whig parties have been rapidly converging * * For a long time it has been felt that the difference between the creeds of these two great parties was too small to divide the hearts of those whose common object was the same

And yet Daniel Sanborn, seeing and believing all this, as he now says, held up a distinct Whig organization of the Straightest sect, for more than two years, or until he got pensioned off with a fat office, as a reward for his exertions in persuading certain Whigs that the Whig party did live and would live, Yes, —this same Daniel Sanborn while secretly believing as above, told the confiding Straightouts who started and supported the Journal that there were distinctive Whig principles to be contended for, and that the Whig party and its principles was imperishable, and would yet revive and triumph over the "traitors" who had left its ranks Who, that remembers the former denunciations of the Journal, can realize that the same hand penned the letter in Wednesday's Union?

In Templeton, Mass, on Monday, 25th ult, Moses Baldwin's house was struck by lightning and three sons and the wife of Mr B were prostrated, and the oldest son 16 years old was restored only by bleeding and drenching with cold water In less than ten minutes after the first stroke the house was struck a second time and set on fire, but the flames were soon extinguished The lightning struck in twenty places in the town

The following is the best joke going upon John Bull

John was travelling on some western railroad when a tremendous explosion took place, the cars at the same time coming to a sudden halt The passengers sprang up in terror, and rushed out to acquaint themselves with the mischief—all but Mr Bull, who continued reading his newspaper In a moment somebody rushed back and informed him that the boiler had burst

"Awe!" grunted the Englishman

"Yes," continued his informant, "and sixteen people have been killed"

"Awe!" muttered the Englishman again

"And—end," said his interlocutor with an effort, "your own men—your servant has been blown into a hundred pieces."

"Awe! bring me the piece that has the key of my portmanteau."

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

AT & ST. LAWRENCE R R.—At the Annual meeting of this corporation, held in Portland on Tuesday, as we learn from the State of Maine, the old Board of Directors was re elected as follows—St. John Smith, John B Brown, John M Wood, Charles E Barrett, Phineas Barnes, George F Shepley, James L Farmer, Rufus E Wood, Solomon H. A PROPOSITION IN FAVOR OF EAST MAINE CONFERENCE SEMINARY—A project has been started which gives some prospect of relieving the East Maine Conference Seminary from its pecuniary embarrassments, and of furnishing a fund for its re opening and continuance The proposition is stated in a circular from Mr THOMAS B EMERY, of Bucksport He has made arrangement for a splendid engraving of Fort Knox, now building opposite Bucksport, which is stupendous embankments, walls and batteries, as they will appear when completed, with representations of the adjacent scenery on the river and its banks —comprising probably one of the most beautiful views to be obtained in any section of the country Mr Emery proposes to receive subscriptions on the following terms—putting the price of the engraving (size 24 by 30 inches) at $5

Estimated profits, $2 each, which profits I agree to deposit in the Bucksport Bank for the benefit of the Seminary, under the supervisor of I C Woodman, W G Chase and J J Lee, who have obligated themselves to take charge of the same and see that the amount is appropriated for the resuscitation and continuance of the school, under the control of the Trustees thereof Should 5000 copies be subscribed for by the last day of August next I have the assurance that the Seminary will be opened as soon after as the necessary arrangements can be made

On the basis of the above agreement, three propositions are to be submitted to the subscribers—the first to pay $2 for each engraving for which the obligor subscribes, at the time of subscription, balance on delivery—2d, proposition the same, with a proviso that if the whole number subscribed for before the last day of August shall be less than 5000 then the obligation to be null and void,—and third to pay a blank amount to the fund, in addition, provided the $10,000 is raised as above proposed These propositions to be either or all of them accepted as subscribers may choose

We understand the State will be vigorously canvassed for this object, during the present month, and we hope the desired object may be accomplished

SMART WORK AT ORONO A correspondent informs us that on Wednesday Ebenr Webster a gang cut 6,600 feet of inch boards from pine logs, in one hour, with the usual crew This included only the merchantable boards, suitable for market. They were all trimmed and piled away within the hour The logs averaged four to the thousand We consider this smart work, but will leave millmen to calculate how many chips to the minute were made, and how much feed was required—Our correspondent says if anybody on the river or elsewhere can beat this report the crew stand ready to beat him in return

POLICE COURT, August 6—Mary E Hall of Orono, for lasciviousness in speech and conduct, was sent to the House of Correction for thirty days, and to pay costs of prosecution

James Sawyer of Oldtown was fined $5 and costs ($10 60 in all) for smuggling a bottle of liquor through a back window to prisoners in the jail For want of cash, he was committed, and will probably have to go without liquor himself for thirty days.

Denis Mountain, for being drunk, was fined with costs $6 56, which he paid

Daniel McAlay, who recently ran away from the House of Correction, was arrested by the police and returned

Amounting in the aggregate to near two million of feet The price has averaged not less than $12 per thousand, and one cargo being a little better lot, sold for $15—[Machias Union

A QUICK PASSAGE—The brig Abby Thaxter, Capt Larrabee, which left this port with lumber on freight the 10th day of June, arrived at Teneriffe, Canary Islands, on the 28th, making the passage in the short space of eighteen days This is probably the quickest passage ever made by any vessel under canvas from Bangor. The captain writes that there are no freights there, and he will make a run to St. Thomas for freight. He intended to leave there the 11th of July.—[News.

Correspondence of the Whig and Courier

Commencement at Brunswick.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 5th

Dear Whig & Courier—Since my last and first epistle, the Anniversary Exercises of the Literary Societies have been celebrated by an oration by Rev Andrew P Peabody, and a Poem by Rev Henry W Parker of New Bedford, both of which are spoken of as creditable productions, but I was prevented from hearing a large portion of both performances Last evening the Dodworths' concert came off The concert was probably superior to any thing of the kind which any other band in the United State could produce, and was characterized by that precision of execution which is the essence of instrumental music, but comparing this concert with others given by the same band in the same place, in former years, this one suffers measurably in comparison—An appreciating audience of more than one thousand persons listened to the performances, amongst whom we noticed Ex Govs Hubbard and Hamlin, each of whom have sons in the graduating class.

As an additional attraction of the week, the "Arts and Sciences" are "hanging out" under a canvass tent in town, where "The wild men of Borneo" are exhibited under the auspices of a hardy gurdy, attracting crowds of the peomanry

This day opened with the commencement of a rain storm, which bids fair to be of long continuance and has put a damper upon the many sports of wrestling, fighting and horse racing, wherewith the crowd of outsiders is wont to amuse itself whilst the Alumni and their friends, and the parents of graduates are hasting to the performances in the church. This year an unusual number of parts were assigned, thirty six for the degree of A. *Excused.

The parts of Messrs Coe and Pond, of Bangor, Braston and Chamberlain of Brewer, Hamlin, of Hampden, and Strickland, of Livermore, received an especial share of your obedient servant's attention—not only because of personal acquaintance with the performers, but still more for the scholarly tone of the productions Eastern Maine may be assured that amongst talented young gentlemen who have to-day done themselves credit, gathered from Washington, D C, to St. Stephens, N. B her own representatives were noticed as treating well chosen subjects in a vigorous, effective manner.

To-morrow the exercises conclude with an oration before the P. B. K by our own Prof. Harris, to which all persons of literary taste are looking forward with eager anticipations, and an oration on "Washington" by Everett, which of course, cannot be criticized, although, as is rumored, a certain teacher of rhetoric and elocution, after hearing the oration, a short time since, dropped Mr Everett a note, stating that if Mr E. would take lessons of him, he would guarantee an immense improvement in his style of delivery, and in the effect of his speaking.

To the gentlemanly Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, Mr Wm H Andrews of Washington, D C, and to R Delevan Mussey, Esq., of the "Boston Courier," our thanks are due, and they be assured that such as they are never injured when

AN HONEST CONFESSION.—The prize of 100,000f at the last drawing of the bands of the city of Paris has fallen to the lot of the cook-maid of M de Crouzas, ex-cashier of the Bank of France On hearing of her good fortune, she informed her master that she should no longer remain in service, but that she certainly should never take a servant for herself, as, according to her experience they were the greatest plagues on earth.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE—For preserving and beautifying the hair and renllering it dark and glossy The Cocoaine holds, in a liquid form, a large proportion of dendorized Cocoanut Oil, prepared expressly for this purpose No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair It softens the hair when hard and dry—it soothes the irritated scalp skin—it affords the richest lustre—it remains longest in effect—and it is the best and cheapest hair dressing in the world

The Missouri Election.

ST. LOUIS, August 6.

The official returns from St. Louis county give Rollins a majority of 1848, being a gain of 340 on Fillmore's vote. In Cape Gardeau County, Rollins' majority is about 100. In Morgan county, Stewart's majority is 98, and in Lincoln county 309. Rollins' gain so far is about 2200 on Fillmore's vote at the Presidential election.

The following majorities are nearly correct: Scotte county 240 for Rollins; Johnson county reported 450 for Rollins; Pettis county 300 for Rollins; Moreton county 120 for Rollins; Morgan county 120 for Stewart.

Second Despatch.—Advices from Leavenworth of Monday state that Woods and Knowlton, the companions of the two men hung on Friday, were being tried by the Judges of the Vigilance Committee. The people were intensely excited, and expressed a determination to Lynch the prisoners at all hazards.

Governor Walker and Judge Lecompte had addressed the people, but failed to pacify them.

The Shawnee Indians.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.

The Shawnee Indians having made their selections and locations of the two hundred thousand acres of land, in accordance with the terms of the treaty between them and the U. States, nothing now remains but the approval and approval of the selections by the President before the residue of the Shawnee lands shall be open to sale and preemption. In view of the conclusion of things, the Commissioners of the Shawnee Land Office will shortly issue instructions to the Surveyor General of Kansas to approve the plots and surveys and transmit them to the proper Land Offices. The claims of the white settlers who have already gone on these lands will not be recognized.

The members of the Cabinet, at a meeting this morning, adopted an order to close the Departments to-morrow, as a token of respect to Mr Loudon.

St Louis, August 5.—Later advices from Kansas state that Walker was still encamped at Lawrence, and that his forces had been increased.

THE SOUTHERN ELECTIONS. It will be seen by the dispatches this morning that the slaveholders have the utmost confidence in modern democracy. They want nothing better. The able men of the South, however, have turned the Republican ball in Missouri.

THE DEATH OF SENATOR RUSK.—The death, by suicide, of Senator Thomas J. Rusk, of Texas, will be learned with pain as much surprise, and nearly as much regret, throughout the country, as the sudden exit of Secretary Marcy created a few weeks ago. He occupied somewhat a similar position among the statesmen of the South to that of Mr. Marcy among the Northern public men. No prominent man in the Southern Democratic ranks had a clearer appreciation of the policies of the country, or more understood or respected so fully the character and strength of the rising Republican party,—and none was personally so near to him and to its representatives on the floor of Congress.

He was a man of real ability and sagacity, a capital and patient aspirant for the Presidency—and had he lived, and his party prospered, as at one time existence still 1860, it would have had no man more available for election, and, being elected, no man who would have conducted it so faithfully and patriotically as the President of the whole country.

Mr Rusk has represented Texas in the United States Senate ever since her annexation to the United States, and his third term of six years, which he had just been chosen, extended to 1863. He has served with fidelity at the head of the Post Office Committee of the Senate, for many years.

Mr Rusk was about sixty years old, and we have no knowledge of his private affairs or habits, but should have judged the insanity under which he destroyed himself, unless it be the result of intoxicating liquors. It was understood his weakness lay in that direction.—Traveller.

NOTABLE GOLD GLITTERS. Persons are now engaged in various parts of New England in enterprises which are but a new mode of digging the unwary. They carry round samples of books costing from 25 to 50 cents, and sell the jewelry. The operator perhaps has in a workshop, or wherever several can are together, and after displaying books of jewelry, (the latter, it is needless to say, is being sold, but a newly discovered metal that will stand the aquafortis test) he persuades the woreamen to pay a dollar each—in return for which he gets a 25 or 50 cent book and a check, which will perhaps produce some kind of jewelry, which he can have by paying some additional trifle, "not a tenth of its value," as the operator says. If the genuineness of the bauble is doubted, he forthwith tests it with his aquafortis, to the satisfaction of the simpletons, and goes off with probably 300 per cent. profit.—Traveller.

WARM ICE CREAM.—A Montreal correspondent of the State of Maine made a singular discovery. He says:

As uncle and your humble servant was strolling out in Quebec suburbs, one day, thinking of nothing and doing less, my attention was attracted to the window of a cafe where, in letters two inches long, was a placard "Warm Ice Cream." Now, we had seen "Hot Whiskey Punches," "Warm Beef Steaks," and those sort of things; but warm ice cream beat my time all to pieces. So in we went on a voyage of discovery, in pursuit of knowledge under difficulties. Stepping up to the counter we asked the attendant what warm ice cream was. "Polly wa, Monsieur," says he. As neither of us could understand French, and the attendant could'nt talk English, we were in a nice fix. After scorning and mondieuing a spell, he finally called his master, a little, volatile Frenchman, who made out to comprehend our question. "Oui, oui, Messieurs, ze warm ice cream; zen you puta one leetle spoon full of, what ze diable you call him, ah, ze red peppare, and one leetle spoon full of ze pepper sauce and mix him all togeither and it so nice in your mouth and as warm as can be in your belly." After bowing and scraping to the Mounseer we left with some additions to our stock of knowlege.

THE BRIDGE.—At a meeting of the proprietors of Ticonic Bridge, on Monday, all the old stock ready to be transferred was taken by new subscribers. On account of the absence of a gentlemen who has charge of the residue, it could not be transferred.

Josiah H. Drummond was chosen a Director to fill a vacancy.

The proprietors voted to rebuild the bridge immediately, and chose Samuel Redington, Edwin Noyes, and Walter Getchell, a committee to contract for that purpose, and superintend the work.—[Waterville Mail.

A new system has been proposed by Mr. Carbia, of Cuba for propelling vessels by means of wind-mills on the decks of ships, from which the motion is to be communicated to side-wheels, similar to those of steamships.

PIANOS—PIANOS

IT is evident to all who hear Edwards & Co's PIANOS that Chickerings' are not ahead of all others. It is also evidence in this case that Edwards & Co's have taken the first premium over all competitors, wherever they have exhibited them, including the Fair at Portland in 1854, where they took the first premium over the celebrated Chickering, for Pianos having the best tone and action

I have an assortment of 6, 6½, and 7 octaves, now at my Rooms, where I invite all (whether purchasers or not,) to see them

ANCIENT AND CELEBRATED

JAPANESE LIFE PILLS.

NATURE'S OWN REMEDY

A positive Cure for Liver Complaint and Bilious Disorders Dyspepsia Rheumatism Scrofula, Costiveness Piles Jaundice and Low Nervousness Fits Hysteria Dyspepsia Diarrhœa Worms Suppression of the Menses Nervous Debility, &c, and a sure preventive to all

PULMONIC AFFECTIONS

We offer the ANCIENT JAPANESE LIFE PILLS on a more extensive scale after we have tested them in the worst forms of disease, and after having been urged to do so by eminent physicians who have cited them to their satisfaction Performing cures where every other remedy had failed we feel it our solemn duty to spread the glad influence to every family of the globe They purify the system the remedy of all impurities penetrate and purify the vital fluids, and the decayed accretions are replaced with fresh, healthy blood Parts that were even decayed and diseased are restored to a healthy organization and incipient disease eradicated as if by magic, leaving the system in a robust condition, and less predisposed to contract any symptom of whatever kind Possessing such penetrating and healing virtues there can be no doubt but they will speedily restore to health and vigor the most debilitated patient We can read it in the now glowing features of the once pale and prostrated patient we can read it in the friendly grasp of the father s hand, and in the mother s warm tears of joy as they behold their darling child restored from the cruel fangs of death by their powerful agency we can read it in the young man s gayety and in the old man s vigor and God bless you! we can read it in the husband s and wife s gratitude, and in the children s prattle, we can read it away out upon the bosom of the ocean, in the sprightly tread and invigorated system of the poor mariner Yes, and we sometimes fancy we can almost read it in the blue canopy of heaven in words of living fire —DISPEASE IS VANQUISHED—THE TRIUMPH IS COMPLETE

These ANCIENT PILLS are also an unrivalled remedy for females suffering from suppression of the menses, the cause of so many declines and female weaknesses The various diseases that attack children are quickly banished by their healing qualities

The PILLS are sent by mail from the Proprietor only on receipt of the price The postage in the United States, not over 3000 miles is fifteen cents on five boxes which must be inclosed in money or stamps If we have no agent in your place, send to us by mail

Professor O. J. Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE.

For Producing Hair on Bald Heads, and Restoring

Grey Hair to its Natural Color,

THIS astonishing and unequalled preparation has never failed to produce a growth on Bald Heads, when used according to directions, and turn hair back to its original color after having become gray, and restorate it in all its original health, lustre, softness, and beauty Removes at once all scurf, dandruff and unpleasant itching, scrofula, eruptions and feverish heat from the scalp It also prevents the hair from becoming unhealthy and falling off, and hence acts as a perfect

HAIR INVIGORATOR AND TONIC.

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friend in New Bedford thus—

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood s Hair Restorative my hair was thin & white, and just beginning to fall very much and it was very thin on the top of my head and very loose, and pulled out freely but I found that before I had used all the one bottle (which was eight weeks) my hair was not only changed to its natural color, light brown and in most instances to Dandruff and itch it has proved in my case all that I could wish to ask Yours, etc —

July 1, 1856

From the Boston Herald.

SOMETHING WORTH KNOWING—Wood s Hair Restorative gray hair can be permanently restored to its original color The subjoined certificate from Judge Sanford Hartshorn, Mayor of the city of Lowell attests that are daily coming to our knowledge of its wonderful effects It is no longer problematical but a self evident truth, as hundreds in our community can testify

Lowell Mass June 22 1855

Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Professor Wood s Hair Restorative with entire success in restoring my hair to its original color after having become entirely gray and quite thin Before using it I was much afraid of a fever My hair has now an abundance of original color You can recommend it to the world with the best of confidence in any case where one of the worst kind Respectfully yours

DANIEL S. MURPHY

Professor O J Wood

Mr Kimball, Dear Sir, January 12 1855

Dear Sir—Having made use of your Hair Restorative, I am happy to say that it has proved to me a most excellent article, and one which will not disappoint any one who uses it according to the directions I was troubled with dandruff and my hair was coming out very much, but since using your Restorative I have been troubled with neither, and my hair is now in a healthy condition Yours truly J K B ——

Professor Wood From the Old Colony Church Boston

WOOD s HAIR RESTORATIVE—This admirable article is rapidly increasing in favor, and deservedly so We recollect of no similar article which has ever been offered to the public possessing so many virtues and which has given such universal satisfaction Its peculiar chemical combination renders it exceedingly efficacious in restoring the hair to its original color, preserving it from falling off, and preventing dandruff and other diseases of the scalp Altogether we consider it the best article of the kind ever offered to the public, and those who use it according to directions will not be disappointed
